Details of the event/ activity:

As per the guidelines provided by UGC, the students should refrain from any act of ragging. Sarvajanik University observed Anti-Ragging Week starting from 12 August 2026. Notably, 12 August is celebrated as Anti-Ragging Day across the country.

Dr Kiran Pandya, Provost, Sarvajanik University, Surat, addressed the students and steered the inauguration of Anti Ragging Day. He noted in his address, "It is very important for all stakeholders of academics to understand that Ragging is a serious crime, and we, at Sarvajanik University, are always committed to a Ragging free campus and have adapted zero tolerance policy towards ragging."

As part of the Anti-Ragging Week, students from all 8 constituent colleges of Sarvajanik University successfully organised the following activities:

- 12 August 2026 – Poster Presentation and Article Writing Competition on the Anti-Ragging theme.
- Orientation
- Screening of videos

Following these guidelines, Sarvajanik University has undertaken dedicated efforts to spread awareness and understanding about ragging among students through this Anti ragging week observance.

The participants selected at college level exhibited their posters and articles at University level in the above mentioned competitions.

The above activities were organized for the students to get an imprint of how ragging is a crime and may lend them to legal convicts. Also one of the aims of the event was that students would know how a victim of ragging is ruined for lifetime and traumatized so if they want to make a good and peaceful environment to study in, they should not get involved in any of the acts or mute witness of ragging. The students participated enthusiastically in these competitions, displaying great zeal. They also took a pledge to make every effort to prevent ragging from entering their campus.
