As per the guidelines provided by UGC, the students should refrain from any act of ragging. Sarvajanik University observed Anti-Ragging Week starting from 12 August 2025. Notably, 12 August is celebrated as Anti-Ragging Day across the country.

The Honourable President of Sarvajanik University, Mr. Bharatbhai Shah, congratulated all students and faculty members for organising such an event and urged everyone to remain committed to eradicating the menace of ragging in the future as well.

Addressing the students, Honourable Provost Dr. Kiran Pandya said that ragging is a social evil that not only hampers a student's career but also puts their life at risk. With the government implementing strict laws against ragging, it is only through collective public awareness that such harmful practices can be eliminated.

As part of the Anti-Ragging Week, students from all 8 constituent colleges of Sarvajanik University successfully organised the following activities:

- 12 August 2025 – Poster Presentation and Article Writing Competition on the Anti-Ragging theme.
- 13 August 2025 – Street Drama/Skits and Mono-Acting Performances on the Anti-Ragging theme.
- Orientation

Following these guidelines, Sarvajanik University has undertaken dedicated efforts to spread awareness and understanding about ragging among students through this Anti ragging week observance.

The participants selected at college level exhibited their posters and articles at University level in the above mentioned competitions.

The above activities were organized for the students to get an imprint of how ragging is a crime and may lend them to legal convicts. Also one of the aims of the event was that students would know how a victim of ragging is ruined for lifetime and traumatized so if they want to make a good and peaceful environment to study in, they should not get involved in any of the acts or mute witness of ragging.
