creating an enlightened society.

Objectives of the Library Advisory Committee:

- Review Library Services and Resources: Regularly evaluate existing library services' effectiveness and identify areas for improvement.
- Advice on Library Policies: Provide recommendations on policies related to library access, usage, and new service implementations.
- Support Resource Development: Offer guidance on acquiring and maintaining materials that align with academic needs across departments.
- Promote Library Initiatives: Assist in promoting library-related programs, events, and resources for faculty, staff, and students.

The committee will provide insightful opinions on digital infrastructure, resource management, library regulations, and user services as a consultative group. In addition to reviewing and suggesting changes, its members will collaborate with the university's Library Services team to promote the library's function in fostering academic achievement and high-calibre research.

Thank you for your attention, and we look forward to your continued collaboration.
