SarvajaniK University

The establishment date of SarvajaniK University is 1st June, 2021. The SarvajaniK Education Society has established the University under Gujarat Private Universities Act No. 8 of 2009 and Amendment Gujarat Private Universities Act No. 15 of 2021.

At the core of SarvajaniK University is an ‘Integrated, Inclusive & Innovative’ approach. To guide, educate, mentor the youth of the nation, under the institutional umbrella of the University is the key objective. Under its aegis are eight constituent institutes imparting education in domains of Arts, Business, Commerce, Architecture and Design, Engineering, Law, Management, Science and Humanities.

The Gujarati word ‘SarvajaniK’ translates as Universal, Public and inherent in it, is the notion of “Inclusiveness”. This essence is carried forward as the integration of various institutes of excellence, which existed as separate bodies in the SarvajaniK Education Society.

Core human values have been integrated in the Interdisciplinary understanding of theories and practicalities of life skills. The students will contribute holistically to the development of progressive communities and enlightened societies through determined collaborative exchange of knowledge and expertise with other educational institutions globally as well as locally.

Values that encourage civic participation, ethical professional practice & happy community living have been incorporated in the curriculum.

NSS - Sarvajanic University @ Various Initiatives

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Cell of Sarvajanic University continued its commitment towards community service, youth empowerment, nation-building, and holistic student development through various impactful activities organized during the academic year 2025–26. Through programmes focused on leadership, patriotism, social awareness, cultural harmony, literacy, inclusivity, and civic responsibility, the NSS Unit actively engaged students in meaningful experiential learning beyond classrooms.

The year witnessed enthusiastic participation of NSS volunteers in orientation programmes, national integration initiatives, intellectual activities, cultural celebrations, awareness campaigns, and inter-school competitions. These activities not only strengthened the spirit of “Not Me But You” among volunteers but also provided opportunities for personality development, teamwork, communication skills, and social engagement.

The NSS Cell successfully organized and participated in programmes such as the National Integration Camp (NIC), NSS Orientation Programme, Readathon Carnival 2026, Celebration of 150 Years of Vande Mataram, and Yuva Samvad – Season 3. Each activity contributed significantly towards nurturing responsible citizens with values of unity, inclusivity, leadership, and service to society.

The following section presents a brief overview of the major activities and achievements of the NSS Cell during the academic year 2025–26.

NSS Orientation Program

23 December 2025

The NSS Cell of Sarvajanic University successfully organized a One-Day Orientation Program for NSS Volunteers. The program was thoughtfully designed to provide holistic exposure to social service, nation-building initiatives, disability inclusion, and civil defense preparedness.

The primary objective of the One-Day Orientation Program was to familiarize newly enrolled NSS volunteers with the vision, mission, and activities of the National Service Scheme. The program aimed to instill a sense of social responsibility, leadership, inclusivity, nationalism, and preparedness for community service among the volunteers.

The programme commenced with a Welcome Address and inspiring words by Shri Ashish Desai, Registrar, Sarvajanic University. In his address, he motivated the volunteers to actively participate in NSS activities and emphasized the role of youth in shaping a responsible and progressive society through selfless service.

Following this, Dr. Niket Shastri, Programme Coordinator, NSS – Sarvajanic University, delivered an informative session on the Orientation Programme and various NSS Activities. He explained the structure of NSS, its motto “Not Me But You”, objectives, regular activities, special camps, and the importance of volunteerism in nation-building. His session provided clarity on the expectations, roles, and responsibilities of NSS volunteers.

The next session on “Fostering a Disability-Inclusive Society for Advancing Social Progress” was conducted by the Team of SETU Library and Training Centre. The session sensitized volunteers towards persons with disabilities and highlighted the importance of empathy, accessibility, and inclusive practices. The speakers shared practical insights on how youth can contribute towards building an inclusive society through awareness and community engagement.

The programme further included a seminar on “AtmaNirbhar Bharat Sankalp” by Dr. Prakash Patel, State Convener, Training Cell, BJP Gujarat. He elaborated on the vision of a self-reliant India, emphasizing youth participation, skill development, innovation, and social commitment as key pillars of national progress.

The final session was an Orientation on Civil Defence Training conducted by Shri Vijaykumar Patel, Deputy Chief Warden, Civil defence, Surat. He educated the volunteers about disaster management, emergency preparedness, civil defence roles, and the importance of readiness during natural or man-made emergencies. The session was highly informative and instilled a sense of responsibility and discipline among the volunteers.

Sarvajanik University Celebrates 150 Years of Vande Mataram Through Group Singing Led by NSS

Sarvajanik University, in collaboration with its NSS Unit, proudly organized a special group-singing event to commemorate 150 years of the iconic national song Vande Mataram. The celebration was held on 20 November at 2:00 pm on the university campus and witnessed enthusiastic participation from over 170 students, NSS volunteers, and faculty members.

The event was held under the blessings and leadership of Shri Ashish Vakil, Chairman, Sarvajanik Education Society and President, Sarvajanik University; Dr. Kiran Pandya, Provost, Sarvajanik University; and Shri Ashish Desai, Registrar, Sarvajanik University. Their presence and inspiring words added immense value to the occasion, motivating participants to reflect on the cultural, historical, and patriotic significance of Vande Mataram.

Through this powerful collective rendition, the university sought to remind young citizens of the importance of unity, love for the motherland, and the shared responsibility of nation-building. Events like these help instill national pride, strengthen social cohesion, and nurture responsible, empathetic youth—qualities crucial for shaping a progressive and harmonious India.

Sarvajanik University continues its commitment to holistic education by promoting cultural awareness, civic responsibility, and service-oriented leadership through ongoing NSS initiatives.

B.R.C.M. College of Business Administration

25 September 2025

A comprehensive seminar on the Nikshay Mitra Initiative was conducted for NSS students of Sarvajanik University to raise awareness about tuberculosis and to promote community involvement in national TB eradication efforts. The programme was held on 25 September 2025 at the B.Ed. Hall and was organized by the NSS Cell of Sarvajanik University at B.R.C.M. College of Business Administration, Sarvajanik University. The primary objective of the seminar was to educate students about tuberculosis—its causes, symptoms, modes of transmission, prevention strategies, and available treatment options. Special emphasis was laid on the importance of early diagnosis, regular medication, and adherence to the prescribed treatment regimen.

The seminar also introduced students to the Nikshay Mitra Initiative, a flagship programme under the Pradhan Mantri TB Mukht Bharat Abhiyan, which enables individuals and institutions to adopt and support TB patients by providing nutritional, social, and emotional assistance. Students were encouraged to actively participate in this initiative as responsible citizens and NSS volunteers.

Distinguished Guests and Resource Persons

The programme was enriched by the presence of eminent medical professionals from Gandhinagar and the Surat Municipal Corporation (SMC), who shared their expertise and practical insights:

- Mr. Hardeep Singh Kher, TB Consultant, Gandhinagar
- Mr. Narendra Shirsath, TB Control Officer, Surat Municipal Corporation (SMC)

The resource persons explained the medical and social dimensions of tuberculosis in detail and highlighted the crucial role of public awareness in achieving a TB-free India. They also elaborated on how community participation through the Nikshay Mitra scheme can significantly improve treatment outcomes for TB patients.

The session was highly interactive, with NSS students actively engaging in discussions and asking insightful questions related to TB prevention, patient support, and volunteer responsibilities. The speakers appreciated the enthusiasm and commitment shown by the students and motivated them to serve as ambassadors of health awareness within their communities.

उत्साहपूर्वक भाग लिया।

इस संवाद का उद्देश्य युवाओं को यह समझाना था कि राष्ट्र निर्माण में उनकी भूमिका कितनी महत्वपूर्ण है और एक सशक्त भारत के निर्माण में आने वाली चुनौतियों

का सामना किस प्रकार किया जा सकता है। साथ ही, विद्यार्थियों को स्वयं को सशक्त बनाने और राष्ट्र को सशक्त बनाने की दिशा में आगे बढ़ने के लिए प्रेरित करना भी इसका प्रमुख लक्ष्य रहा।
